

Tues 16 Sept 5pm

The Scottish World - Billy Kay

Charismatic writer, performer and broadcaster - chronicler of Scottish language and culture and author of The Scottish World. A special talk of stories from his travels and detail of the incredible influence the Scottish diaspora has had all over the world, from Hawaii to Malawi, Scandinavia to Brazil. Billy will illustrate with the voices of people from the diaspora who featured in the radio documentaries he has made on Scots abroad. Billy consulted for The Scottish Diaspora Tapestry and this his visual representation contains many stories from his book.

FREE with book signing

www.billykay.co.uk

Wed 17 Sept 2pm

The Jacobites at the Scottish Tapestry - Arran Johnston

Arran is a specialist writer, historian, and in re-enactment. He makes history engaging and entertaining.

He also has an extensive involvement in the Scottish Diaspora Tapestry.

FREE

www.arranjohnston.co.uk

Sat 20 Sept 12 - 4pm

Weaving demonstration - Sma'Shot Cottages - Dan Coughlan

Dan is a master weaver and Curator of Textiles at Paisley Museum. FREE

Mon 22 Sept 11am

Making the Scottish Diaspora Tapestry - Andrew Crummy

Superb artist and illustrator - the designer of The Scottish Diaspora Tapestry talks about his work, including the huge influence of Paisley. FREE

www.smallandcrummy.co.uk